

PHILIPPIANS 1:12-30

Paul wrote his letter to the Philippians from jail. He wasn't in jail for being a bad man (although before he became a follower of Jesus he had done lots of bad things). Paul's life completely changed when he got to know Jesus and he decided to love the people Jesus did...which was everybody. Paul was in jail just for telling people about Jesus and helping them to follow Jesus.

How would you feel if someone put you in prison just for worshiping God?

Lots of people around the world today get sent to prison for worshiping God. Find out some of the countries that have put people in jail just because of their faith.

Speak out!

1: Act out a bible story about Jesus that you remember. You could record it and play it back to your family later.

2: Write a card to someone you know to encourage them and let them know that Jesus loves them!

3: Find out about some of the Christians in prison today at opendoorsuk.org and pray for them.

Make it!

Paul could have been mad, and scared, but he chose to trust in the Holy Spirit and asked the Philippians to pray from him.

He used his time to tell the guards and other prisoners about Jesus, even though he knew he might be killed for it!

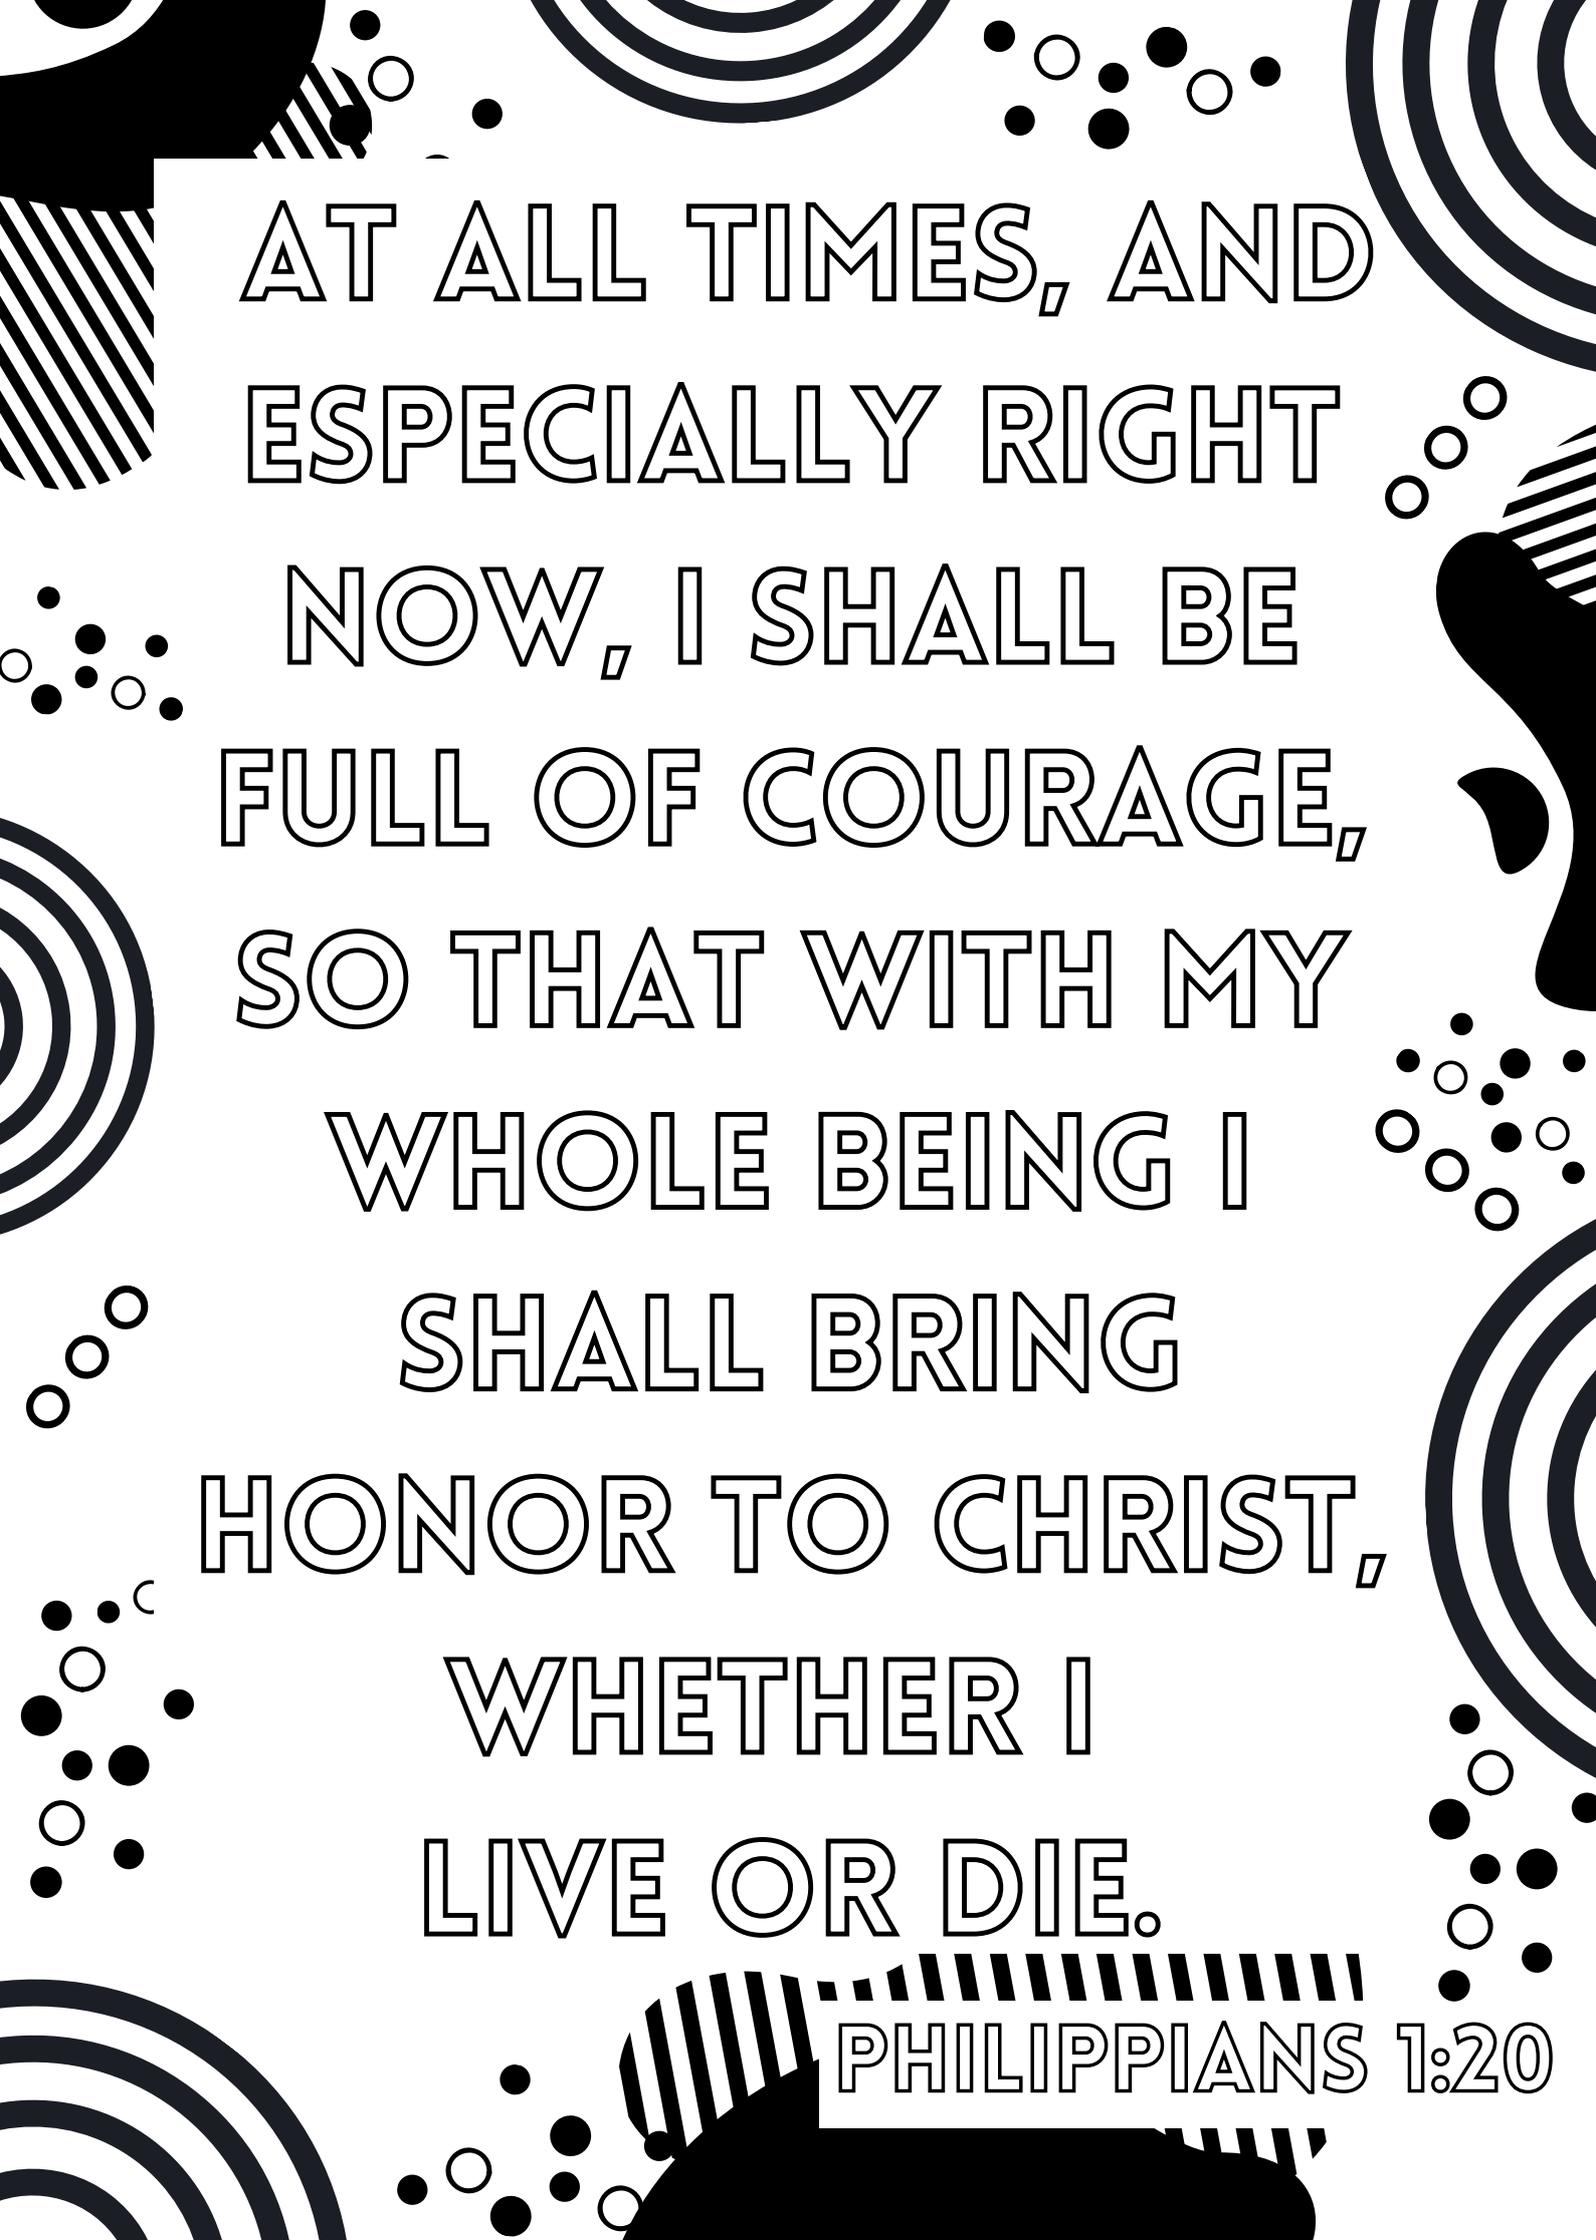

Using Strips of paper and glue or sticky-tape make paper chains to decorate your house and remind you that even when you are jailed (locked-down!) God gives you chance to share his love and hope.
